

Recall -- Firm Press Release

FDA posts press releases and other notices of recalls and market withdrawals from the firms involved as a service to consumers, the media, and other interested parties. FDA does not endorse either the product or the company.

Jayone Food Issues Voluntary Alert on Undeclared Peanuts in Dried Seaweed Salad

Contact:

Consumer:

(562) 232-2754

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - November 23, 2013 - Jayone Foods, inc. of Paramount, CA is voluntarily recalling All date codes of Trader Joe's Dried Seaweed Salad with Spicy Dressing (SKU 97677), because it may contain traces of peanuts. People who have an allergy or severe sensitivity to peanuts run the risk of serious or life-threatening allergic reaction if they consume this product.

The dried seaweed salad packaged in a 3.5 oz. foil pouch, found in the grocery aisle at Trader Joe's was sold nationwide. The voluntary recall was issued by Jayone Foods after a customer inquiry prompted an investigation.

Customers who have purchased the Dried Seaweed Salad with Spicy Dressing and have sensitivity to peanuts are urged to return it to Trader Joe's for a full refund or dispose of it. Customers with questions may contact Jayone Food, Inc., 8:00a.m.-5:00p.m. PST, Monday-Friday at (562) 232-2754.